

IBAC to hold public hearings into allegations of corruption in local government planning and property development decisions at Casey City Council

Public hearings to be held from 18 November

Public hearings into allegations of serious corrupt conduct in relation to planning and property development decisions at the Casey City Council will commence on Monday 18 November 2019.

The hearings are open to the public and will be held on Level 5/11 Exhibition St, Melbourne from 10 am each sitting day. For more information, go to www.ibac.vic.gov.au.

IBAC Commissioner The Honourable Robert Redlich QC will preside at the hearings. Counsel assisting will be Michael A Tovey QC of the Victorian Bar together with Amber Harris, Principal Lawyer of IBAC.

Anyone with information relevant to the investigation is encouraged to report it at www.ibac.vic.gov.au/report or 1300 735 135.

IBAC is Victoria's independent anti-corruption commission, responsible for preventing and exposing public sector corruption and police misconduct.